ACCOMMODATION

Accommodation options	Exchange students can apply for on-campus dormitory housing or arrange off-campus accommodations. The University of Hawaii at Hilo cannot guarantee housing. However, we will assist student in locating suitable housing near campus. Due to a shortage of on-campus housing, it is essential that students meet the application deadlines to receive on-campus housing. Those who do not get on-campus housing will be assisted by the Center for Global Education and Exchange. Those who choose to make their own housing arrangements can use the housing office website for information about off-campus options.
